A teacher's typical day

Some people think that a teacher's day is easy. Teachers usually get up at 4:00 or 5:00 am, because they start class at 6:30 am. They are always on time for class. They always prepare their classes and check school evaluations at home. During the break, they sometimes talk to parents at school or write school reports. They never have lunch at home; they usually have lunch at school with students. After school, they sometimes have extracurricular activities, sports or conversation clubs. A teacher's typical day is very busy!
